

Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill Early Restoration Project Scoping

The Louisiana Natural Resource Damage Assessment (NRDA) Trustees are soliciting restoration projects by June 25, 2011 for consideration for potential inclusion in an early restoration plan.

Projects submitted after this date and those not selected for the initial phase of early restoration planning will be considered for future stages of both early and long-term restoration.

Projects may also be submitted online at:

<http://losco-dwh.com/>